Art Unit 239

1. The preliminary amendment filed on 9/18/90 has been entered.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103 which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Subject matter developed by another person, which qualifies as prior art only under subsection (f) or (g) of section 102 of this title, shall not preclude patentability under this section where the subject matter and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

3. Claims 11-13, 15 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 as being unpatentable over Hughes'US/3990710.

Hughes shows a system for dubbing information from a first memory of a first party (20) to a second memory of a second party (35) who controls the use and in possession of the second memory. Hughes shows a slot (28) for receiving money transferred to the first party from the second party. Hughes further shows that the first and the second memory are connected electronically (18-24) such that information can pass therethrough. Hughes further
